The Girl in the Other Room

Words & Music by Diana Krall & Elvis Costello

Medium waltz with a swing

The girl in the oth- er room she knows by—now there's— some-thing in all of her fears. Now she wears it thread - bare she sits on the floor, the glass pressed tight to the wall. She hears mur - murs low the pa - per is peel - ing her eyes star - ing straight at the ceil - -ing. May - be they're there, or may-be it's noth - ing at all as she draws lip - stick smears on the wall. The girl in the oth - er room she pow - ders her face and stares hard in - to her re - flection.
